

Less Lethal Instructor Certification

This 24-hour program will provide the student with qualified instructor training in the use of Less-Lethal intervention options including Kinetic Energy Impact Munitions, Chemical Agents and Noise/Flash Diversionary Devices (flash-bangs). New and experienced instructors will benefit from this program by being exposed to various deployment systems and scenario applications.

Topics:

- Tactical employment of munitions
- Levels of Force
- Physiological Effects of Munitions
- Shot Placement
- 12 gauge, 37mm, and 40mm Specialty Munitions
- Less Lethal kinetic energy projectiles
- Chemical agent munitions
- Deployment techniques

Equipment Requirements:

- Department issued Less Lethal shotgun, 37 or 40 mm launcher.
- Protective Gas Mask
- Duty gear, Body Armor, Training (non-function) handgun and, Flashlight.
- Nomex® or similar type gloves that cover the entire hand. Long sleeve shirt
- Wrap around Ballistic Eye and Ear protection
- Dept. Less Lethal inventory and policy if available for deployment planning.
- 10 single projectile impact munitions
- 3-5 Barricade Rounds (12ga, 37, or 40mm)
- 2-3 Pyrotechnic smoke (preferred) or CS grenades with pull pin Fuze.
- 4 CTS 7290, 7290M, 7290T with training fuzes or Def-Tec Distraction Devices
- 12 rounds of 12 gauge, 37mm or 40 mm single impact projectile (bean bags or sponge rounds)
- Expired munitions are acceptable but subject to safety inspections and instructor approval.

3-Day Course

Cost: $300

October 4-6, 2021

8:00AM – 4:30PM

Cost: $300

Single Day Course

Cost: $100/day

Oct. 4 – Impact

Oct. 5 – Chemical

Oct. 6 - Flashbangs

To Register:

Jason Weber

920.498.7175

Jason.weber@nwtc.edu

Milwaukee County Sheriff's Academy
9225 S. 68th St., Franklin, WI 53132